Investment Strategy

- "Fund-of-funds" that seeks as its primary objective long-term total return through principal appreciation and secondarily current income.
- Diversifies assets across industry-leading mutual funds and ETFs (Underlying Funds) based on the team's outlook. Targets 3- and 5- year horizons that maintain the Fund's volatility (standard deviation) within a specified range and meet the rigorous performance tolerance demands of The E-Valuator analytical software (e-valuator.com).
- The E-Valuator software searches, screens and selects Underlying Investments based on 40 plus criteria (i.e., management tenure, volatility, fees, risk-adjusted return) set by the team. Daily oversight identifies lagging performance and suggests replacement funds to optimize return.
- Generally allocates 1%-15% of assets into active and passive Underlying Investments focused on fixed income, with the remainder to equity securities.
- Rebalanced periodically as the Underlying Investment balances vary +/- 10% from their original allocations.

There are risks involved with investing, including loss of principal. Current and future portfolio holdings are subject to risks as well. Diversification may not protect against market risk. There is no assurance the goals of the strategies discussed will be met. International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from difference in generally accepted accounting in principles or from economic or political instability in other nations. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. Bonds and bond funds will decrease in value as interest rates rise. These and other risks are described more fully in the fund's prospectus. The issuer of a fixed income security may not be able to make interest and principal payments when due. The lower the credit rating of a security, the greater the risk of default on its obligation.
