Quarterly Commentary

For the quarter-ending and the year-ending 12-31-2017, the Fund outperformed its Morningstar's Category (15% to 30% Equity Allocation) while retaining less than 15% of its assets dedicated to Equities. The use of more Ultra Short term debt and Short term debt have helped the Fund increase its returns as compared to the heavy allocation into money markets in the past. The Federal Reserve continued to raise interest rates in Q4, which required a high degree of focus and attention to fixed income management. The Fund took advantage of positive performance from its allocation into domestic and international stock markets during the last quarter of 2017.

Quarterly Commentary

The Fund continues to out perform its Morningstar's Category (15% to 30% Equity Allocation) in every timeframe, i.e. 3-month, 1-year, 3-year, and 5-year, while keeping its volatility as measured by Standard Deviation within the stated goals for the Fund. The Fund will continue to retain an equity allocation ranging from 25% to 30% of the overall Portfolio. The Fund continues its slow rotation out of shorter term fixed income investments into more intermediate duration to capitalize on the higher rates with an eye on inflation. The Federal Reserve's continued gradual walk up of interest rates will continue to make the fixed income management the most challenging attributes of this Fund.

The allocation to foreign securities has helped this fund weather the Lagging Returns of domestic small and mid cap securities. The fixed income allocation has benefited from performance in the High Yield, Convertible, and Bank Loan categories. The continued growth in the domestic stock market in the last half of 2017 has been a contributing factor for this Fund over the past quarter.
